Introduction to fire and the palaeoenvironment vii

Recent fires and charcoal taphonomy

The taphonomy of charcoal following a recent heathland fire and some implications for the interpretation of fossil charcoal deposits
A.C. Scott, J.A. Cripps, M.E. Collinson and G.J. Nichols 1

Charcoal fragments in surface samples following a fire and the implications for interpretation of subfossil charcoal data
J.J. Blackford 33

Experiments in waterlogging and sedimentology of charcoal: results and implications
G.J. Nichols, J.A. Cripps, M.E. Collinson and A.C. Scott 43

Extraterrestrial impacts and wildfires
T.P. Jones and B. Lim 57

Multiple charcoal profiles in a Scottish lake: taphonomy, fire ecology, human impact and inference
K.J. Edwards and G. Whittington 67

Using fire scars and growth release in subfossil Scots pine to reconstruct prehistoric fires
J.G.A. Lageard, P.A. Thomas and F.M. Chambers 87

The use of mineral magnetism in the reconstruction of fire history: a case study from Lago di Origlio, Swiss Alps
S.J. Gedye, R.T. Jones, W. Tinner, B. Ammann and F. Oldfield 101

High resolution palaeofire signals from Christina Lake, Alberta: a comparison of the charcoal signals extracted by two different methods
L.D. Laird and I.D. Campbell 111

Human firing of the environment

Forest fire and human interaction in the early Holocene woodlands of Britain
J. Moore 125

Fire and Mesolithic subsistence — managing oaks for acorns in northwest Europe?

Mid-Holocene charcoal stratigraphy, fire history and palaeoecology at North Gill, North York Moors, UK
J.B. Innes and I.G. Simmons 151

Sedimentary record of early wood burning in alluvium of mountain streams in the Bieszczady range, Polish Carpathians
J. Kukulak 167

Mid-Holocene charcoal fall in southern Scotland temporal and spatial variability
R. Tipping and P. Milburn 177

Fire in the Quaternary

Palaeoenvironmental evaluation of the importance of fire as a cause for Calluna loss in the British Isles
A.C. Stevenson and A.N. Rhodes 195

Late Quaternary fires and grassland palaeoecology of Mount Kenya, East Africa: evidence from charred grass cuticles in lake sediments

M.J. Wooller, F.A. Street-Perrott and A.D.Q. Agnew 207
Forest fires and insects: palaeoentomological research from a subfossil burnt forest
N.J. Whitehouse 231
The incidence of microscopic charcoal in late glacial deposits
K.J. Edwards, G. Whittington and R. Tipping 247
Late Holocene vegetation and fire history at the southern boreal forest margin in Alberta, Canada
I.D. Campbell and C. Campbell 263

Pre-Quaternary fire
The Pre-Quaternary history of fire
A.C. Scott 281
Devonian charcoal
N.P. Rowe and T.P. Jones 331
Fire ecology of the Carboniferous tropical zone
H.J. Falcon-Lang 339
A major fire event recorded in the mesofossils and petrology of the Late Permian, Lower Whybrow coal seam, Sydney Basin, Australia
I. Glasspool 357
Fire across the K-T boundary: initial results from the Sugarite Coal, New Mexico, USA
A.C. Scott, B.H. Lomax, M.E. Collinson, G.R. Upchurch and D.J. Beerling 381
A review of charcoal analysis as a tool for assessing Quaternary and Tertiary environments: achievements and limits
I. Figueiral and V. Mosbrugger 397
